TERMS OF SERVICE

Last updated: November 28, 2018 (See a copy of our previous Terms of Service here)

Welcome to Teachers Pay Teachers! Teacher Synergy LLC d/b/a Teachers Pay Teachers (referred to in this policy as “Teachers Pay Teachers”, “TpT”, “us”, “we”, or “our”) has adopted the following Terms of Service which govern your relationship with TpT and provide important information about your legal rights (“Terms”).

These Terms explain the rules you need to follow when you visit our website at TeachersPayTeachers.com and any affiliated web pages we may host (“Site”), our mobile applications (“Apps”), and any other services we might offer (together with Site and Apps, our “Services”).

Please note that Section 10.A of these Terms describes what happens in the event of a dispute between you and TpT, and includes a binding arbitration clause as well as a class action waiver. Please review that section carefully as it affects your right to a jury trial and to participate in a class or representative action.

TpT is an open marketplace for educators and creators to discover, buy, sell, and share their original content for teaching and learning, classroom decor, and supplies for creating such works (“Resources”). Resources may include electronically delivered files, digital products, streaming video, physical or used goods, and other product types. TpT may modify, add, discontinue support for, or limit the availability of any product type. A Resource, together with the Resource title, description, and other listing information make up a “Resource Listing.” TpT at no time owns or sells Resources for or on behalf of our Sellers.

Users of the marketplace include members who have registered for a TpT account (“Account”) (“Members”) and visitors who browse the marketplace without registering for an Account (“Visitors”). (Visitors and Members together are our “Users”).

By using our Services as a Visitor, Member, or in any other manner, you agree to follow these Terms, including the terms of our Privacy Policy, Copyright & Trademark Policy, Community Guidelines, Seller Fees and Payout Rates Policy, TpT for Schools User Agreement, and any other policies which are incorporated as part of these Terms.

1. Membership

This section provides information on who's eligible to join our community, how to create an account, and the types of accounts we offer. To use many of the features of our Services, we require you to register as a Member with us. Some Members post, share, and sell Resources (Sellers), other Members use their accounts only to browse, purchase, and download Resources (Buyers), and some do both. We also offer schools the ability to join TpT and connect with their teachers (Organizations).

A. ELIGIBILITY

To use many aspects of our Services, you'll be asked to become a Member. Only individuals who are 18 years of age or older are eligible to become Members. By registering for an Account or using our Services, you represent and warrant that you are at least 18 years old.

When you create an Account, the information you provide needs to be true and accurate. Don't provide fake or false information, don't provide information that violates someone else's rights, and don't impersonate someone else.

We may ask for proof of your age or identity at any time in order to verify your Account and we may close or suspend access to your Account if you violate this rule or if we are unable to verify your age or identity.

If you're a school, organization, government, business, or other entity, the person whose email address is associated with the Account must have authority to bind the entity to this Agreement.

If your Account has been closed by TpT, you are no longer eligible to be a Member of our community.

B. USERNAME & PASSWORD

You'll be asked to pick a username for your Account. Your username has to be unique and can't be inappropriate, offensive, or something that violates the rights of someone else.

You'll also be asked to pick a password to protect your Account. Together this information is used to access your Account. It's your responsibility to keep your login information confidential and you're responsible for any and all activity that happens under your Account whether or not you authorized it. If you believe that your Account has been accessed by an unauthorized person, please contact our Customer Experience team as quickly as possible at support@teacherspayteachers.com so we can help.

C. MEMBERSHIP TYPES

Buyers. You can join TpT as a Buyer to use our Services for purchasing and downloading Resources (“Buyer”, “Buyer Membership”). A Buyer Account is owned by the individual whose name and email address are listed on the Account profile. As a Buyer, you’ll be able to make purchases, download free and purchased Resources, post Feedback, questions, comments, requests, or other public messages (“Communications”), submit requests for custom products, connect with other Members, your School, or an Organization, and enjoy other features and services we may offer.

Sellers. You can enjoy additional capabilities that allow you to offer and sell Resources through our Services as a Seller (“Seller”, “Seller Membership”). Sellers include individuals offering their own authored works (“Teacher-Authors”) and organizations or entities offering materials produced by one or more employees or commissioned authors (“Publishers”). TpT reserves the right to modify your Seller Membership type at any time at our discretion. (See “Membership Fees” Section for more information about Seller Memberships.)

Seller Memberships have all the same features of Buyer Memberships plus the ability to upload and sell Resources, access sales data, purchase promotional space, access marketing features and tools, and access additional information and communication features. The tools and features available to a Seller depend on the Seller’s chosen Membership level.

Organizations. Users such as Schools or other entities using TpT for Schools (“Organization Membership”) to purchase and download Resources are bound by the provisions of the TpT for Schools User Agreement which is incorporated as part of these Terms. Members who link their Account to an Organization must comply with these Terms as well as the provisions of the TpT for Schools User Agreement.

D. MEMBERSHIPS & FEES

Purchases, taxes, and fees. You are responsible for paying any amounts due, including any applicable taxes, when you make purchases on TpT. When you purchase on TpT, you will be charged (in U.S. Dollars) the list price for each item as well as applicable state and local sales taxes, and any fees associated with your order. By placing an order, you represent and warrant that the billing information you’ve provided is accurate. TpT enables Sellers to collect sales tax on applicable orders in states where they have designated an obligation. TpT is not responsible for the information provided by our Sellers and does not guarantee the accuracy of sales tax calculations. In addition, for states with applicable marketplace collection laws, TpT will calculate, collect, and remit applicable sales tax. Where sales tax applies to your order, the amount of tax due will be estimated at checkout and may differ from the final sales tax amount that will be charged when your order is processed. Where sales tax is not collected, you are solely responsible for the payment of any use tax that may apply to your purchase and you may be required to file a use tax return to pay such taxes.

Buyers. Joining as a Buyer is free. Buyers may, at any time, and after paying any applicable fees, upgrade to a Seller Membership.

Sellers. TpT offers multiple Seller Membership options. Each Seller Membership has different features and privileges, Payout Rates, and Fees.

“Fees” include (1) membership subscription fees charged each membership term (“Membership Fees”), and (2) fees charged per Resource sold (“Transaction Fees”).

“Payout Rate” is defined as the percentage of the list price you earn for each Resource you sell. Payout Rates may vary depending on the type of Resource and your Membership level. Your Payout Rate is applied only to the list price of each Resource at the time sold, before any Transaction Fees or Shipping Charges are applied. See Section 5 for additional information on Earnings and Payouts.

The Fees and Payout Rates for each Seller Membership are defined in our Seller Fees and Payout Rates Policy which is incorporated as part of these Terms. For any membership for which a Membership Fee applies, your membership will automatically renew each term unless you cancel the renewal. Click here or contact us to learn how to cancel your renewal.

We may, in our discretion, make changes to the Memberships we offer, the privileges and features available to each Membership, as well as the Fees and Payout Rates associated with each Membership at any time.

In advance of any Fee increase or change in Payout Rates, we’ll notify all affected Users at the email address associated with the account in accordance with these Terms. Changes in Payout Rates will be applied to all affected Sellers as of the stated effective date of the change, irrespective of any individual Seller’s Membership Fee renewal date. Any increase in Membership Fees will be applied only to renewals taking place after the change goes into effect.

Sellers are responsible for any other fees or costs they may incur and for paying any applicable income, sales, or other taxes they may be subject to as a result of using our Services.

E. RELATIONSHIP

These Terms are the entire agreement between you and TpT, and they govern your relationship with TpT. Becoming a Member of our Services does not create an agency, employment, or partnership relationship between you and TpT. TpT is not the employer of and does not act as an agent for any Member.

F. ACCOUNT CLOSURE

Closure by TpT. We may, in our discretion, close or suspend the Account of any Member at any time for any reason, with or without notice.

Closure by You. You have the right to close your TpT account at any time, without notice to us. You can close your Account from your My Account Basic page or by contacting us for assistance.

Effect of Account Closure. After your account is closed, you’ll no longer have access to your Account information, past purchases, uploaded Resources, and many of the features of our Services that require an Account. If you close your Account on your own, you can reopen your Account anytime by logging in again.

If you'd like for TpT to close your Account so that it cannot be reopened upon login, please write to us.

Communications you've posted on the TpT site will not be removed if your Account is closed. You may be able to remove or edit some Communications at your discretion before you close your account. For more information about your Account information and our data retention practices, take a look at our Privacy Policy here.

If you're a Seller, any Resources you've posted will no longer be searchable and your Resource pages will not be available to Users, however your paid Resources remain accessible to the Accounts of Members who have previously purchased them.

Discontinue Services. We may change, suspend, or discontinue offering our Services at any time. Any suspension or discontinuation in our Services may mean that that your Account, including any Resources or other materials you may have purchased from our Services, and any Resources or Communications (collectively "Content") you may have uploaded to our Services, may not be available to you or to other Users. We are not liable to you for any impact a change, suspension, or discontinuation of our Services may have including the loss of access to any Resources that you've purchased, or loss of income from your temporary or permanent inability to sell Resources through our Services.

2. TpT Community

It's important to us that TpT is and always remains a safe, supportive, collaborative community for educators to share and discover new and better ways to teach. This section outlines the rules you need to follow when using TpT whether you're buying, selling, downloading free resources, or just browsing. Basically, be respectful, tell the truth, follow the law, and use common sense.

A. COMMUNITY GUIDELINES

As a User of our Services, you are required to follow our Community Guidelines which are incorporated as part of these Terms. We may modify or add to these rules at our discretion. If you violate any of these rules, we may take action against your Account, such as removing Content you've posted, removing Resources from your Account, suspending or terminating your Account, issuing a refund to your Buyer, or any additional action that we deem necessary.

B. COMMENTS, RATINGS & REVIEWS

You may have the option to provide a review of a Resource you've purchased or downloaded for free by providing a rating and a comment ("Feedback"). Any Feedback you choose to leave should reflect your honest experience using the Resource for its intended purpose and must comply with our Comments and Ratings Guidelines. We may, at any time, set additional requirements or limitations for leaving Feedback such as a minimum or maximum characters, time-based restrictions, or other requirements. Sellers may not leave feedback on their own Resources or otherwise attempt to undermine the integrity of our Feedback system. We may remove Feedback for any reason, at any time, without notice and we may ban a Member from leaving future Feedback.

C. REWARDS PROGRAMS

We may, at our sole discretion, offer Members opportunities to earn rewards through various programs or incentives ("Rewards Programs"). You can view the rules of our current Feedback Rewards program here, and current Referral Program here.

We are under no obligation to offer a Rewards Programs of any kind or to issue compensation in any specific form. We may change the compensation amount or form, Rewards Program requirements, and the conditions for receiving future compensation at any time. We reserve the right, at our discretion, to revoke or withhold compensation or ban a Member from receiving Rewards or participating in a Rewards Program. We reserve the right to modify, suspend, or discontinue any such Rewards Program at any time.

D. MONITORING CONTENT

TpT has the right, but not the obligation, to monitor any activity and Content associated with our Services. We may investigate any complaints or reported violations of our policies and take any action that we deem appropriate. Such action may include, but is not limited to, issuing warnings, suspension or termination of your Membership, denying access, and/or removal of any Content on the site, including Resource Listings.

3. Resource Licensing Policy

TpT Sellers own their Resources and give you certain rights to use them for limited purposes. This section describes the agreement between you and the Sellers you purchase from, and lets you know what's OK to do with Resource licenses you buy on TpT and the types of licenses available.

A. IN GENERAL

License. TpT Sellers own and maintain the intellectual property rights in their Resources and grant Members licenses to use such Resources for limited use as described in this section. When you purchase a Resource, you're purchasing a license to use the Resource in accordance with the terms of this Resource Licensing Policy. All downloadable and digitally consumed Resources can only be used in accordance with a license, which can either be an "Individual License" or a "Classroom License."

Your use of any Resource, regardless of license type and whether the license is purchased by you, transferred to you by your Organization, or purchased for you as a gift or on your behalf by your school or other entity, is subject to this Resource Licensing Policy and other terms set forth in these Terms. You agree to comply with the terms of this Resource Licensing Policy as well as any additional terms the Seller provides in the Resource Listing, to the extent that such terms do not conflict with these Terms. In the event of any conflict between this Resource Licensing Policy and a Seller's terms, this Resource Licensing Policy will govern, except that Sellers may grant certain additional rights to their Resources.

B. INDIVIDUAL LICENSE

An Individual License is a license that may only be assigned to a single specific individual user ("Assignee") (e.g. one specific teacher) for that Assignee's lifetime use. Individual Licenses are non-transferable and may not be used by or reallocated to a different Assignee (for example, a teacher who purchases an Individual License can use such Resource, in accordance with this section, for her or his lifetime but cannot transfer use of such Resource to another teacher after her or his retirement).

Except as otherwise stated in these Terms (such as in the "Limitations on Access" section set forth below), under an Individual License, the Seller grants to the purchasing Member, for use by one Assignee, a non-exclusive, perpetual, irrevocable, non-transferable, non-sublicensable, worldwide, limited license to use the Resource for the purposes and under the conditions described below. The Seller may grant additional rights at their discretion.

If you purchase an Individual License, the Seller permits you to:

- Assign use of the Resource to one Assignee. Once an Assignee has been designated, the Resource cannot be used by any other individual without purchase of an additional license. For clarity, you can purchase an Individual License for yourself, as a gift, or as an Organization purchasing on behalf of a teacher. In such cases, a single "transfer" of the Resource to the intended recipient is permitted, but you may not reallocate an Individual License from one user to another or share the Resource with additional users unless you purchase an additional license.

As an Assignee of an Individual License, the Seller permits you to:

- Use the Resource for personal, educational, and instructional use only ("Personal Use"). This means you can use Resources for your own personal purposes, for your individual study, and to teach your students.
- Print and make copies of downloadable Resources as necessary for Personal Use. Copies may be made and provided to your students, classroom aides, and substitute teachers as necessary. Copies may also be made for students' parents, classroom observers, supervisors, or school administrators for review purposes only. Hard goods and video resources may not be copied, shared, or otherwise reproduced.

Unless otherwise expressly permitted by the Seller:

- You may not use the Resource, in part or in whole, for commercial purposes. This means you can't sell it, use it for advertising or marketing purposes, or use it in any other way in connection with a business or profit making activity.
- You may not post or otherwise make the Resource available on any website.
- You may not share, send, sell, sublicense, or transfer the Resource to someone else for their own Personal Use unless you purchase an additional license for each additional educator you will share it with. Each Individual License is for use by one specific educator only.

C. CLASSROOM LICENSE

Subject to these Terms and other policies made available by TpT, Organizations using TpT for Schools may have the option to purchase an upgraded transferable "Classroom License" or upgrade an existing Individual License to a Classroom License. Classroom Licenses allow for reallocation from the original Assignee to a new user under the conditions provided in this section. Classroom Licenses are only available to TpT for Schools purchasers.

Although Classroom Licenses can be transferred from one Assignee to another in accordance with the terms of this Resource Licensing Policy, a Classroom License may be used by only one user at a time. In order to transfer a Classroom License from one Assignee to another, an Organization must first reclaim the Classroom License from the current Assignee. An Organization may reclaim a Classroom License in order to transfer it to a new user no more than once per calendar year. TpT may, in its discretion, modify the frequency with which a Classroom License may be transferred, or allow additional transfers on a case-by-case basis.

Except as otherwise stated in these Terms (including without limitation the "Limitations on Access" section set forth below), under a Classroom License, the Seller grants to the purchasing Member, for use by one Assignee at a time, a non-exclusive, perpetual, irrevocable, non-sublicensable, worldwide, limited license to use the Resource for the purposes and under the conditions described below. The Seller may grant additional rights at their discretion.

If you purchase a Classroom License, the Seller permits you to:

- Transfer the Resource to one Assignee (e.g. a teacher within your Organization) at a time. Unlike an Individual License, you can reclaim the license from the Assignee and re-assign it to a different user. You may not share a Resource with multiple users concurrently unless you purchase additional licenses.

As an Assignee of a Classroom License, the Seller permits you to:

- Use the Resource for Personal Use only.
- Print and make copies of downloadable Resources as necessary for Personal Use. Copies may be made and provided to students, classroom aides, and substitute teachers as necessary. Copies may also be made for students' parents, classroom observers, supervisors, or school administrators for review purposes only. Hard goods and video resources may not be copied, shared, or reproduced.

Unless otherwise expressly permitted by the Seller:

- You may not use any Resource, in part or in whole, for commercial purposes. This means you can't sell it, use it for advertising or marketing purposes, or use it in any other way in connection with a business or profit making activity.
- You may not post or otherwise make any Resource available on any website.
- An Assignee may not continue to use a License that has been reclaimed by the Assignee's Organization after the license is reclaimed.

D. LIMITATION ON ACCESS

Downloadable Resources. TpT cannot guarantee continuous access to any Resource through our Service. For example, if at any time, TpT stops hosting a Resource for any reason or you or TpT terminates, suspends, downgrades, or otherwise limits your Account or access to TpT's Services, your ability to access the Resource through our Services may be terminated. It's your responsibility to maintain and store a copy of downloadable Resources on your device to ensure future access.

Digital and Video Resources. If you purchase access to a Resource in the format of streaming video or other non-downloadable formats, your license will expire if you or TpT closes your account, or if TpT stops hosting the Resource for any reason.

4. Intellectual Property

This section describes what content on the site belongs to us and is protected as our intellectual property, what belongs to you, and the rights you grant us to use your intellectual property.

A. THE SERVICES AND THE SITE CONTENT

Except for Content uploaded or posted by Members, all other aspects of the Site and the Apps you find on our Services is owned or controlled by us. This includes, but is not limited to, all text, graphics, photographs, logos, and other imagery, videos, user interfaces, trademarks, computer code, and other content of our Site or Apps (collectively, "Site Assets"). This also includes the design, structure, coordination, arrangement, expression, and the "look and feel" of Site Assets. Site Assets are protected by copyright, trademarks, trade dress, trade secret, and other intellectual property rights.

You may not use, reproduce, copy, modify, republish, perform, display, disassemble, reverse engineer, translate, or distribute Site Assets in any way to any person, computer, server, website, or other entity for any commercial purpose without our explicit permission. By commercial purpose we mean that you can't sell, license, rent, use in your own business or website, incorporate into marketing materials or presentations, or make other commercial use of our Site Assets.

B. YOUR CONTENT

Rights you grant to TpT. Some parts of our Services allow you to upload or post Content. You retain any intellectual property rights that you hold in that Content. TpT does not take or claim any ownership (copyright, trademark, or otherwise) over your Content.

When you post or upload Content to our Services, you grant to us limited rights to store, use, and display, and provide access to the Content you post as necessary to provide our Services, such as to display your Resource in your store and in search results, to make your Resources available for download, and to display and promote your Resources on TeachersPayTeachers.com, through email, and ads on other sites or search engines, and through other marketing campaigns. For these purposes, you grant to us a nonexclusive, irrevocable, perpetual (except as otherwise provided herein), worldwide, sublicensable license to exercise any copyright, trademark rights, or other rights in and to your Content necessary to provide our Services to you and our other Users.

Rights you grant to others. When a Member purchases a license to use your Resource or downloads free Resources from you, you allow them to use your Resource as described in Section 3 of these Terms above, in accordance with the license type purchased by such Member and any other terms you expressly set forth in writing in connection with such Resources (as long as any additional terms do not conflict with these Terms). For clarity, you may, at your discretion and in accordance with these Terms and any other policies set forth by TpT, grant additional rights to purchasers of your Resources, but you may not enforce limitations on such use that are inconsistent with the rights granted in Section 3.

For Classroom Licenses, the list price will automatically reflect an increase over the price you set for an Individual License, and will be determined by applying a default "premium" percentage (determined by TpT) to the Individual License list price. The default premium percentage number is subject to change by TpT. As a Seller, you may increase the premium percentage (and therefore the overall price of a Classroom License) based on available increments up to 100%, but you may not set a premium percentage lower than the default determined by TpT. Please contact us for assistance.

Effect of account closure or Resource deactivation. If you or TpT closes, suspends, or otherwise limits your Account or access to the Services, or downgrades your Account to a Buyer Membership, we'll no longer display your store page or your Resource Listings, and your Resources will no longer be available for purchase or download by Members who haven't previously purchased them. If you or TpT deletes or deactivates a single Resource Listing, that Resource will not be available for purchase or download by Members who have not previously purchased or downloaded the Resource, and the Resource Listing will no longer be displayed in your store or in search results. If any of the above situations takes place, TpT will continue to store your Resource file on our servers and will continue to make it available for download by Members who have previously purchased the Resource subject to other limitations set forth in these Terms. TpT will continue to display your Communications unless you remove them from the Services before you go. If you do remove them, we'll no longer display them on our Services, but we may continue to store a copy of them in our databases.

C. REPORTING INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY VIOLATIONS

We respect the intellectual property rights of others and expect the same from all of our Members. No Member may post any material, information, communication, data, or anything else that infringes on the copyrights, trademarks, or patent rights of someone else.

It's our policy to close the Accounts of Members who repeatedly or egregiously violate this policy.

We comply very closely with the Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA) and other laws governing the use of intellectual property. Our Copyright & Trademark Policy explains our policy and process for receiving notification and removing potentially infringing material from our Services. That policy is incorporated as part of these Terms.

5. Payment, Earnings, & Payouts

This section provides information on making and receiving payments, our refund policy, and how and when Sellers get paid for the Resources they sell through our Services.

A. PURCHASING TERMS & REFUNDS

Refund Policy. When you list a Resource or make a purchase on TpT, you agree to our Refund Policy. Except as provided in our Refund Policy, all sales are considered final and nonrefundable once an order is submitted. We may, in our sole discretion, modify our Refund Policy or, on a case-by-case basis, issue a refund for a reason that falls outside of our Refund Policy. Sellers can view a refund and any applicable refund note in their Sales Details report. Sellers may authorize a full or partial refund for any reason by contacting us.

Payment methods and currency. We may offer a variety of payment methods to pay for purchases, such as a credit and debit card, PayPal Account, School Purchase Order, Teachers Pay Teachers Account credit, or the available balance on a valid Teachers Pay Teachers Gift Card. We accept payments in United States Dollars (USD). Cash payments and payments in other currencies will not be accepted. We may change or add to our accepted payment methods at any time and we are not obligated to accept payment by any means other than those accepted at the time of your purchase.

School Purchase Orders. Payment by School Purchase Order is available only to schools, districts, and other eligible educational institutions. By submitting a School Purchase Order, you represent and warrant that you have authority to bind the purchasing entity in the transaction, and that the entity agrees to pay the total price as quoted on the TpT Purchase Order Quote, including applicable processing fees. Invoices for School Purchase Orders must be paid in U.S. Dollars, and payment is due within twenty-one days of the Invoice Date. Cash payments and payments in other currencies will not be accepted.

Promise to pay. When you buy something on TpT (including Resources, Teachers Pay Teachers Gift Cards, Account credit, Seller Memberships, promotional, marketing or other services which may be available to Sellers, and other products or services we may offer), you represent and warrant that you're authorized to make the purchase and to use the payment method and billing information you've provided. You further agree that TpT may charge your payment method the amount due, which will be in U.S. Dollars. We are not responsible for any additional fees you may be charged by your financial institution such as international transaction fees or overdraft fees. Payment for certain purchases by Sellers, such as promotional services, may be collected through a deduction from the Seller's next Earnings Payout, or by credit or debit card if your current unpaid earnings are not enough to cover the purchase price.

Failure to pay and payment disputes. Failure to pay as promised may result in late fees being charged, Resources being removed from your Account, Account suspension or closure, or any other action we deem necessary. If we receive notice that you've disputed a charge related to a purchase made from your TpT Account, we may, at our discretion, offer proof to challenge the dispute. Pending resolution of the dispute, we may remove the purchased Resources from your Account temporarily, or, if a refund is ultimately issued, permanently. In our discretion, we may take further action against your Account.

B. EARNINGS & PAYOUTS

Earnings. Sellers earn a percentage of the list price of each Resource they sell through our Services based on the Payout Rate that applies to their Membership Type ("Earnings"). Earnings are reduced by the full amount of any Transaction Fees that apply, and increased by the full amount of any shipping fees charged. For details on our Seller Membership options, and the Fees and Payout Rates that apply to each, see our Seller Fees and Payout Rates policy. Earnings are paid in monthly "Payouts" according to the schedule described in this Section.

Payout Account. To issue Payouts, we work with third party companies which process and transfer funds between us and our Sellers ("Payment Services"). To receive Payouts, Sellers must have an Account capable of receiving payments with a supported Payment Service ("Payout Account"). You can find a list of supported Payment Services here. If you have questions about the status of your Payout Account, please reach out directly to the Payment Service you use. If you are unable to register a Payout Account with any of the supported Payment Services, we may consider alternative means of issuing Payouts at our discretion on a case-by-case basis. We make no guarantees about the services offered by any third party companies including the current or any future Payment Services we may support, and we are not responsible for any payment delays or other complications caused by Payment Services. We may, at our discretion, modify the list of supported Payment Services at any time, discontinue support for an existing Payout Service, or make additional Payout options available.

Schedule. We issue Payouts on a monthly basis by the twenty-first day of the month following the month in which a sale was made. For example, Earnings related to a sale made in the month of January will be paid as part of a monthly Payout issued by February 21st. We may, at our sole discretion, withhold or delay a Payout due to any Seller who we believe to be in violation of any of these Terms. After the matter is resolved, we will either refund the withheld sales or complete the Payout.

Payment Service Fees. Payment Services may assess transaction fees when we transfer your Payouts to you. We will deduct from your Payout an amount equal to or less than the transaction fee assessed to us by the Payment Services. These transaction fees are subject to change at the discretion of the Payment Services. We are not responsible for any additional fees or taxes you may incur from other third parties related to receiving or accessing your Payouts.

C. SALES TAX

Except in the case of Marketplace Collection, you may have and are responsible for the collection and/or payment of any Sales Tax you may owe. TpT Sellers may have the option to use a third party service integrated with the Services (the "Tax Services") to enable sales tax collection on TpT in states where the Seller has designated a sales tax obligation.

Seller Obligations. By operating as a Seller on TpT, and whether or not you opt to use the Tax Services, you hereby agree to the following:

- Registration. You represent and warrant that you will use the Tax Services only to calculate and collect sales tax in jurisdictions where you are registered to collect sales tax.
- Remittance. You represent and warrant that you will remit any collected sales tax that TpT provides to you to the appropriate taxing authorities in accordance with applicable laws. TpT is not responsible for and will not remit collected sales taxes for tax collected in states not designated in the list of Marketplace Collection states, or for any taxes collected in such states prior to the date on which TpT first begins Marketplace Collection in such a state.
- Product tax codes. You acknowledge and agree that you are responsible for designating the appropriate tax codes for your Resources. Where TpT has provided a default product tax code designation, you understand that it's your responsibility to verify that selection (and modify as may be necessary).
- Accurate information. You represent and warrant that the information you provide for the calculation and collection of sales tax, including but not limited to your street address, is accurate and up to date.
- No warranties. You acknowledge and agree that TpT is not responsible for and cannot and does not guarantee the accuracy or availability of the Tax Services or any other service you use to calculate or collect taxes or to determine the taxability or non-taxability of any transactions. You further acknowledge and agree that when you access the Tax Services or any other third party tax services through the Services or on the Internet, you do so at your own risk. The Tax Services and other Third Party Services are not under TpT's control, and you acknowledge that TpT is not responsible or liable for the content, functions, accuracy, legality, appropriateness or any other aspect of such services or resources. You further acknowledge and agree that TpT shall not be responsible or liable, directly or indirectly, for any damage or loss caused or alleged to be caused by or in connection with the use of or reliance on any such services, goods or resources available on or through the Tax Services or any other Third Party Services.

- Indemnification. You agree to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless TpT, its employees, officers, directors, agents, and affiliates from and against all costs, expenses, damages, judgments, and liabilities (including reasonable attorneys' fees) resulting from allegations, threats, claims, suits, or other proceedings (i) brought by third parties related to your use or misuse of the Tax Services or any other tax services you use in connection with the Services; and (ii) brought by any taxing authority, related to your failure to properly remit any taxes which are owed by you in connection with your use of the Services.

TpT's Obligations. In accordance with applicable laws, TpT will calculate, collect, and remit sales tax on applicable orders in states having marketplace collection laws requiring us to do so ("Marketplace Collection"). The list of applicable states and effective dates for which TpT will provide Marketplace Collection, which will be updated from time to time, can be found here.

6. Your Privacy

This section describes how we protect your personal information and how you can report a violation of your privacy.

A. OUR PRIVACY POLICY

The privacy and security of your data and the personally identifiable information you give us is important to us. Our Privacy Policy explains the data we collect from you and how we use it. By using TpT Services, you agree that we may use such data in accordance with our privacy policies.

10. Other Terms

In this section, you'll find additional rules for using TpT such as what happens if there is a dispute between you and TpT, and certain modifications for government Users.

A. DISPUTES WITH TpT

In the case of a dispute between you and TpT arising out of these Terms or your use of our Services, the following rules will apply. PLEASE READ THIS SECTION CAREFULLY – IT MAY SIGNIFICANTLY AFFECT YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS, INCLUDING YOUR RIGHT TO FILE A LAWSUIT IN COURT AND TO HAVE A JURY HEAR YOUR CLAIMS.

Binding Arbitration. You and TpT agree that any dispute arising out of or relating to these Terms or your use of our Services will be settled through binding arbitration, conducted by the American Arbitration Association (AAA) and in accordance with their Commercial Arbitration Rules. Your responsibility to pay any filing, administrative, or arbitrator fees will be solely as set forth in the AAA rules. To the extent permitted under AAA rules, the arbitrator may award costs, fees, and expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, to the prevailing party. A decision reached by arbitration will be final and binding and may be entered as a judgment by any court having jurisdiction. You understand that there is no judge or jury in arbitration, and that other procedural rights such as discovery and appeal are not available in an arbitration. YOU AND TPT EACH KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY AGREE TO WAIVE YOUR RESPECTIVE RIGHTS TO A TRIAL BY JUDGE OR JURY AND TO HAVE YOUR CASE HEARD IN A COURT OF LAW.

Disputes will be settled on an individual basis. YOU AND TPT EACH KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY AGREE TO WAIVE THE RIGHT TO BRING OR PARTICIPATE IN A CLASS, COLLECTIVE, CONSOLIDATED, OR REPRESENTATIVE ACTION OR ARBITRATION. Notwithstanding this clause, each party may seek injunctive or other equitable relief in a court of competent jurisdiction in New York County to protect the party's intellectual property rights pending completion of the arbitration.

Governing Law. These Terms are governed by the laws of the state of New York, and the laws of the United States of America without regard to principles of conflict of law, and regardless of where you are located in the world.

Venue. TpT is located in New York, with our headquarters in New York City. Any dispute subject to Binding Arbitration will take place in New York County, New York. For any other judicial action that may arise between you and TpT, or for which our Binding Arbitration clause is found not to apply, both you and TpT agree to submit to the venue and personal jurisdiction of the state and federal courts located in New York County, New York.

B. NO WAIVER

Any failure by TpT to enforce any right or provision of these Terms does not constitute a waiver of that right or provision and will not limit our right to act or enforce these Terms against subsequent or similar breaches.

C. SEVERABILITY

If any part of these Terms is deemed invalid, unenforceable, or illegal, that part which is unenforceable is severed from the Terms, and will have no impact on the enforceability of the remainder of these Terms.

D. GOVERNMENT AGENCIES & PUBLIC ENTITIES

If you are a federal, state, or local government or government agency in the United States and are using TpT in your official capacity, the following amendments to these Terms apply:

Federal Governments & Entities. If you are a federal government or federal government entity, the provisions entitled “Indemnification,” “Binding Arbitration,” “Governing Law,” and “Venue” do not apply to your official use of the Services only to the extent that they are inconsistent with federal laws or regulations.

TpT will not use your name, seals, trademarks, or the fact that you’re a member of our Services to purposefully state or imply an endorsement of our Services. TpT will use your name, seals, trademarks, and the fact that you’re a member of our Services as necessary in the regular operation of our Services and to deliver our Services to you and to other Members.

State and Local Governments & Entity. If you are a state or local government, or state or local government entity, the provisions entitled “Indemnification,” “Binding Arbitration,” “Governing Law,” and “Venue” will apply to your official use of the Site and the Services only to the extent permitted by your jurisdiction’s laws.

11. Survival of Terms

Some parts of this agreement stay in effect even if you decide to stop using TpT or if TpT closes your account.

The following provisions survive if you cease using our Services or your Account is closed by you or by TpT for any reason:

- Visitors. If you continue to access our Services as a Visitor, any Terms that apply to Visitors still apply to you.
- Intellectual Property Rights. You still have to respect our intellectual property rights as described in Section 4.A, and if you’ve posted Content, you’re bound by Section 4.B.
- Rules for Listing Resources. If you’ve sold Resources, our rules requiring continued access to your Resources for Members who have previously purchased or downloaded them still apply. This means, if you’re hosting any Resource content through a third party, access through that third party host must be maintained.
- Rules for Purchasing and Downloading Resources. After your Account is closed, you have to follow the licensing rules about how you can use Resources you’ve purchased or downloaded and who you can share them with, our Refund Policy, and our Payment Disputes policy.
- Privacy Policy. Section 6 of these Terms and the terms of our Privacy Policy continue to apply, including data we collect from Visitors if you continue to visit our Site, how we treat and use your Account information after your Account is closed, and how you can report Content that you believe violates your privacy rights.
- Earnings and Payouts. Any final Payouts due to you are subject to these Terms and will be paid in accordance with Section 5.
- Disputes with TpT. Any legal action that might arise between you and TpT related to your use of TpT is governed by the provisions of Section 10.A of these Terms.
- Warranty Disclaimer, Limitation of Liability, and Indemnity (Section 7 and Section 8). TpT’s warranty disclaimer remains in effect, you can’t hold TpT liable for losses or damages due to your use of TpT, and you still have to defend TpT against legal action arising from your use of the Services.

These additional terms apply to your use of TpT for Schools.

Welcome to TpT for Schools!

- TpT for Schools unlocks great new features for connecting schools with their teachers and bringing curriculum planning and collaboration to TpT.

- This TpT for Schools User Agreement (the "Schools Agreement") is entered into between Teacher Synergy LLC ("Teachers Pay Teachers", "TpT") and the Organization that you represent, and governs use of TpT for Schools by the Organization and each of its members. By using TpT for Schools, you and your Organization agree to this Agreement, as well as the TpT Terms of Service and Privacy Policy (collectively, the "Agreement"). Your Organization is responsible for ensuring that you and all participating members of your Organization agree and abide by the terms of this Agreement. If the Organization doesn't agree to any of the terms of this Agreement, please do not use the Service.

- All capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein have the same meaning as set forth in the Agreement.

MEMBERSHIP

- Organization Membership. An organization (such as a school or other educational institution) may create a collaborative account on TpT for Schools ("Organization Account"). Organization Accounts may be opened only by individuals with authority to bind the Organization to the Agreement. By creating an Organization Account, you're representing that you're an agent of the Organization and that you're authorized to act on behalf of the Organization.

Organization Accounts enjoy many of the same features as other TpT Members, as well as some additional features for communicating with other members, managing purchases, and managing account access by other members of your organization. Organization Accounts are owned by the Organization and may be controlled and administered by one or more Organization Account managers ("Organization Manager").

New and existing Members of TpT can be invited to link their personal TpT account to an Organization Account and will be added to the Organization's roster as an "Organization Member."

Removal of Members and Managers. Organization Members or Managers may be removed from an Organization at any time by the Organization, or by TpT.

- The Organization is responsible for removing Members who should no longer have access to the Organization Account, for example if the Member has left the employ of the Organization or if the Organization has reason to know that the Member has violated the Agreement in their use of the Organization Account.

- Once removed, Organization Members will no longer have access to any Distributed Licenses claimed by the account, can no longer submit Resource requests to that Organization, and can no longer access the Organization's library or other Organization Account features.

- Similarly, once removed, Organization Managers no longer have access to the Organization's library, request list, or any other Organization Account features including receiving and approving Resource requests, distributing Resource Licenses, or making purchases on behalf of the Organization.

- If you'd no longer like to be an Organization Member or Manager, email us at support@teacherspayteachers.com or submit a request through our Contact Us page and we'll be happy to help with that.

- Account Termination. The Organization or TpT may terminate this Schools Agreement at any time upon written notice. Upon termination, all Members and Managers will be removed from the Organization Account, and Members will not longer have access Organization account features, including the Organization's library of purchases and Distributed Licenses. All warranty disclaimers, TpT's limitation of liability, and the confidentiality provisions survive this Schools Agreement.

To terminate an Organization Account, the Organization Account Manager or another authorized representative of the Organization may contact us at support@teacherspayteachers.com or submit a request through our Contact Us page and we'll be happy to help with that.

PURCHASES & REFUNDS

Organizations are responsible for paying for purchases placed from the Organization Account. TpT's Refund Policy applies to those purchases. All other refund requests will be reviewed in accordance with the exceptions outlined in our Refund Policy.

LICENSE RIGHTS & SHARING

All Resources purchased on TpT are licensed to you by the Seller for limited and individual use in accordance with the provisions of our Terms of Service.

Using TpT for Schools, an Organization Manager has the ability to distribute Licensed Content to an Organization Member for that Member's individual use ("Distributed License"). The Organization must purchase a separate Individual License for each Organization Member to whom Licensed Content will be distributed. A Distributed License is downloadable directly from the Organization Member's TpT account and may be removed from that Member's account upon request (please contact TpT for assistance).

Unless otherwise permitted by the Seller or TpT, Resources may not be posted publicly or otherwise made available online, may not be distributed to Members in excess of the number of licenses purchased, and licenses are not transferable. This means Licensed Content may not be reallocated from one Organization Member to another unless permitted by the Seller or TpT.

We may make additional license types available at our discretion and with consent of the Seller. License types, prices, and availability may vary. The options presented at checkout are the only options available to you at any given time.
